TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., JUNE 11, 1912.

No. 39

You can be Prosperous too someday if you Bank your money Now

The man you see riding by in his automobile perhaps began with smaller income than you have now. But by depriving himself of a few unnecessary extravagances he was able to start a bank account. It grew. Today he is enjoying the luxuries that he pays for out of money that he does not miss; because money makes money. The comfort he enjoys today is only the interest on his EARLY ECONOMY. Start a bank account NOW.

Local and Personal.

Ed. Ewell, late with the Grand Island sugar factory, spent yesterday in town. He is now selling cigars for a wholesale grocery house and says he is meeting with success.

Mrs. James Hart entertained at a six o'clock dinner last evening the bridal parties of the McDonough-Jeffers, Ma-loney-Horrigan, McWilliams-Vosepka. The table decorations were very beautiful and cut flowers used in profusion. Each course was nicely served and much enjoyed.

Mrs. Perry Carson entertained the Young Ladies Kensington club and their gentlemen friends at a pre-nuptial shower last evening for the brides of June, Misses Evelyn Jeffers and Mae McWilliams. A very pleasant evening was spent by all and the young ladies received a generous shower of useful gifts. Nicely prepared refreshments were served at midnight.

N. B. Spurrier, of Nichols, who was in town yesterday, says conditions in the valley west of town are not the best. He cited a seventy acre cornfield where all but ten acres would need replanting, while in every field portions had been taken by the worms. It is so late in the season that it is questionable whether it is worth the while to replant corn.

All persons are warned not to drive cattle across lands east of town owned by Waltemath and Neville and leased by me. W. M. SIMANTS. 37-12

The Junior Normal team crossed bats with a picked team of this city Friday afternoon at the athletic park with the result of 24 to 0, the North Platte team holding the big end of the score. Jones was very effective in the box throughout the game for the city team while Weinberger did nice work at the bat. Homer Muselman did the umpiring to the entire satisfaction of both teams. A fairly good crowd witnessed the game despite the cool weather.

The board of directors of the Chautauque met last evening. E. S. Davis was chosen to fill a vacancy on the board of directors by resignation of Edward Goodman. Secretary Wilson Tont was authorized to order 1,000 fence posters and 500 gas jet tags for advertising, also to order tickets and complete the program on which there is one vacancy. W. M. Cunningham was appointed superintendent of the grounds.

Dr. and Mrs. McCabe, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Schiller and W. H. Ryan, of Central City, were pleasantly entertained at a banquet given by the employees of the Rexall and Nyal drug stores at the Ritzner Cafe last evening. The dining hall was decorated in red and white streamers and large bouquets of red and white carnations beautified the tables. Charles Tighe ably filled the toastmaster's chair and a number of toasts were responded to. The affair was a success in every way and was greatly enjoyed by all present. Music was furnished during the evening by the Pat theatre orchestra. Covers were laid for twelve.

A most successful leap year dance was held in the Masonic hall last evening under the management of Messrs. P. H. Longman and Joseph Fillion Jr. Seventy-five of the most congenial young people of the city attended. The music furnished by the Stamp Orchestra was of high class order, the floor waxed to the right degree and this combined with the good dancers present made the affair a most enjoyable one. Special dances were introduced by Messrs. Landgraf, Musselman, Day, Friend and Sandall. At midnight a two course lunch was served at the Dickey Ice Cream Parlors after which the merry crowd returned to the hall and spent a couple hours in dancing. The committee in charge are to be congratulated upon the success of this affair.

Opens Tonight.

On account of threatening weather last evening, the opening of the Airdome was postponed until this evening. This opening will assume the nature of a benefit to the band, a share of the proceeds being devoted to that organization, and a number of selections will be given during the evening. Manager Westfall has a fine line of pictures to exhibit at the opening this evening.

Brotherhood Meeting.

The Union Brotherhood meeting held at the M. E. church Sunday evening, was a great meeting. The middle section of seats, reserved for the men, proved inadequate, and many of the brotherhood men were compelled to find seats elsewhere in the house. The music was an inspiration and it would have been more so if more books had been provided. E. W. Crane led the singing and proved his ability as a leader.

R. W. Harman delivered an address from the subject "The Battle Cry of Modern Churchmen." The battle cry, as he expressed it, "Back to the basis of supply and out in all directions," Jesus Christ being the basis of supply. His address was masterful, strong and fearlessly uttered. He laid down propositions that will tell for the advancement of moral and church life in North Platte.

Those who were present have been enthusiastic in their praise of the service in its entirety and many have expressed the hope that another such service will be held in the near future. The men of North Platte can do things about right when they try. May the spirit of brotherhood and service grow each day.

"The Flirting Princess."

Harry Bulger will be in North Platte at the Keith theatre in his brand new 1912 edition of his latest success "The Flirting Princess." This will give us our first glimpse of this musical comedy, which, while in its third season, is now coming to North Platte. The engagement is for one night, Friday, June 14th. "The Flirting Princess" is styled a "nonsense farce" by the authors, and savors of genuine sensational novelties of a unique character, far removed from the many so-called musical plays of today; and above all "The Flirting Princess" is said to contain a well defined plot. The story in brief concerns an Egyptian girl, whose insane desire for flirting has caused her royal father no little worryment, and after having all the available marriageable material in her own native country, she decides to run away and visit America in quest of further prey.

Her father, who, for political reasons has made plans for her marriage, immediately sends his guards in pursuit to America in an endeavor to induce her to return home, and in order to frustrate his plans, the Princess assumes a disguise, entering into a mock marriage with an American chauffeur in order to claim the protection of a real "Stars and Stripes" husband. This happens to be "Sporty Bangs" (Bulger), who is already married, and has a terrible time straightening things out to his real wife, the subsequent conditions giving rise to no end of ridiculous complications. So much for the plot.

The police rounded up a house in the Fourth ward and one on east Front street Saturday night and gathered in nine men and three women. They were arraigned in the police court yesterday forenoon and each fined ten dollars and costs. All but one liquidated.

Miss Eunice Babbitt, who is spending her vacation at her home in this city, is president of the Lincoln chapter of the P. E. O., and as such official will attend the state meeting of the order at Aurora next week.

John Sandall was called to Cheyenne this morning by the illness of a relative.
